News & Activities from the children's homes in Bhopal

Happy Holidays and a Happy New Year

For this edition of the newsletter, we bring the stories of our children:

- Some of the newcomers who arrived at our home in 2022.
- Children who have been at the homes for quite some time and stand out.
- Story of a child who graduated and earned his rightful place in Society.

The newcomer's sad story is poignant. It is representative of the children we care for. Your donation helps children such as these. With your help they will thrive, reach their potential, be productive, and end the cycle of poverty which cursed their families.

NEWCOMERS

Four brothers from a broken family!

They lost their parents & two other siblings.

Brought to Nitya Seva by Child Welfare Agency that responded to a tip on the ChildLine and found the eldest fending for the younger ones.

Their father had died earlier from liver cirrhosis. He was an alcoholic, a day laborer earning a mere 500 Rupees ($ 6.13) per day on the days he had work. A substantial part of his meager income was lost to his addiction. Estranged from his wife, he forcibly brought five of his six children, the youngest merely a few months old. The oldest, a sister aged 14 was left behind with the mother. After the father's death, authorities tried to locate the mother, but she could not be traced. The daughter and uncle were not found either. And that is how these children lost their father, mother, and their sister. Their youngest sibling who they also lost, died under most unfortunate circumstance. While the father was at work, a wild cat entered the one room tin shed where the family lived, attacked the youngest and dragged him to the roof. The boys screamed for help; the neighbors were able to rescue the child, but he did not survive.

The children had never attended school.

All four go to school now. The children are adjusting well to their new home. Pavan is in KG1, Bhola in Nitya Seva in-house school. Even little Bodhi goes to play-school. Prakash's progress has been nothing short of amazing. For obvious reasons, he was started in KG1. But within a few months he was promoted to first grade. He is reading and writing!
